I know a sweet and lovely face That rivals all your hues; With eyes like the skies of the sunny South, With golden locks and pearly mouth.

What is the skylark's clearest note, Or the nightingale's to me? My Carrie trills a hundred times More clear and silvery; Sweet is her breath as the vernal breeze That comes o'er the full blossom'd trees.

Wnen her lips to mine she gives, Oh, what a perfect bliss! The strawberry and the cherry taste Not sweeter than her kiss. Then May, for thee I'll sigh no more: The Springtime lives and moves in her.

HIS REPLY. - The Troy Times, a day or two since, published an article reflecting unjustly on Catholic clergymen. The next day one of the gentlemen referred to replied as follows:

It seems by an article which you published together with my letter, that the reasons why Catholic priests should not be allowed the same right as Protestant Ministers, is that "the Catholic Church does not renounce all political allegiance to foreign powers," &c.

Please have the kindness to inform the gentleman who wrote this, that when I made the declaration of my intention of becoming an American citizen, I renounced on oath political allegiance to all foreign powers, that I repeated the same oath when I took my naturalization papers, that I was at the time more than thirty years of age and knew consequently the value of an oath, that being a christian, I believe in a God, the avenger of perjury; that the same is true of all 40,000 yds % flannel, cotton and wool my brethren who are naturalized citimy brethren who are naturalized citizens, and that the loyalty of the Catholic body to the Constitution of the United States has been tested long enough, in peace and war, to give to all sincere Americans a sure pledge for the future.

THE increasing demand for this most pleasant, safe, and efficacious remedy for all pulmonary tiscases, has enabled the proprietor to reduce the price so as to place it within the reach of all classes. Its superiority over most similar preparations is attested by many eminent physicians who have been eye witnesses of its efficacy when the usual remedies have failed; also by then and of our most repectable citizens who have used it in their families both as preventive and cure with never failing success for the last twenty years, during which period with very little aid from advertising, &c., it has gradually spread reputation over the whole Union. In cases of recent Colds Coughs, Hoarseness, &c., it gives immediate relief, and generally cures in a day or two, without interfering with diet or business, or readering the system more susceptible of Colds, in chronic cases, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Oroup, Bronchitis, Affections of the Lungs, and Consumption, it is always very beneficial. and seldom fails,
